

Disney Scattergories

Pick a random letter, players must write a word/words for each category beginning with that letter. They can not use the same word in more than one category. At the end of a designated time, players read off their answers. Points are only given for the ones they have that no one else does. Example if more than 1 person writes dog for animals they do not receive a point. If a player has an answer that has 2 words starting with the right letter and no one else does that player receives 2 points. Example Movie Star - Ryan Reynolds. Adjectives may not be used to get points
